

Election To Pay Canada Pension Plan Contributions

You can elect to pay Canada Pension Plan (CPP) contributions if one of the following applies:

- You were a resident of Canada for income tax purposes during the year who received income from any of the types of employment listed on page 3
- You were an individual registered or entitled to be registered under the Indian Act who received tax-exempt self-employment earnings on a reserve in Canada

To calculate your additional CPP contributions, complete and attach to your return a copy of Schedule 8, Canada Pension Plan Contributions and Overpayment, or Form RC381, Inter-Provincial Calculation for CPP and QPP Contributions and Overpayments, whichever applies.

You have to file your election on or before June 15, 2024, and pay your required contributions on or before April 30, 2024.

Attach a completed copy of this form to your return or send it to the Canada Revenue Agency separately.

Types of employment that you can elect to pay CPP contributions on

Type	Employment description
A	Employment in Canada by more than one employer at the same time, with the result that the year's basic exemption used to withhold CPP and Quebec Pension Plan (QPP) contributions was more than $3,500 for the year.
B	Employment that was pensionable employment where you received tips, gratuities, or other earnings from that pensionable employment which the employer did not have to withhold CPP or QPP contributions.
C	Employment outside Canada by a Canadian employer (including the federal government) and the employer has not agreed to cover the employment under the CPP.
D	Employment in Canada by an international organization or by the government of another country and the employer has not agreed to cover the employment in Canada under the CPP.
E	Employment in Canada by an employer who is not resident in Canada, does not have an establishment in Canada, and has not undertaken to cover the employment in Canada under the CPP.
F	Employment in Canada in agriculture or an agricultural enterprise, horticulture, fishing, hunting, trapping, forestry, logging, or lumbering for less than 25 days in the year or where the cash remuneration was less than $250.
G	Employment in Canada of a casual nature other than for the employer's trade or business.
H	Employment in Canada by the federal, provincial or municipal government or a school board for less than 35 hours in the year for any referendum or election for public office, if you were not regularly employed by that employer.
I	Employment in Canada for less than 7 days in the year (for example, at a circus, fair, parade, carnival, exposition, or exhibition) as long as you were not an entertainer and you were not regularly employed by that employer.
J	Employment outside Canada where, under the laws of the other country, you did not have to contribute to a plan that is similar to the CPP.
K	Employment in international transportation partly inside and partly outside Canada and you were not required to contribute to a plan similar to CPP under the laws of a country other than Canada.
L	Employment in Canada fighting a disaster or engaging in a rescue operation if you were not regularly employed by that employer.
M	Employment in Canada if you are registered or entitled to be registered under the Indian Act and you received a tax-exempt salary or wages from an employer who has not undertaken to cover the employment under the CPP.
N	Self-employment in Canada if you are registered or entitled to be registered under the Indian Act and you received tax-exempt self-employment earnings on a reserve.
O	Employment in Canada where you had multiple contracts of employment with the same employer with the result that the year's basic exemption used to withhold CPP and QPP contributions was more than $3,500 for the year.
P	Employment in Canada where you had multiple employers during the year and one or more received your Form CPT30, Election to Stop Contributing to the Canada Pension Plan, or Revocation of a Prior Election, while one or more employers did not withhold CPP contributions because the employers did not receive a copy of your completed Form CPT30 revoking your prior election to stop contributing to CPP.
